Message

Dear Children, Parents and Teachers of Catechism,

We are obliged to God for the blessings he sprinkles upon us. It is inevitable to rear up our children in accordance with the inventiveness of the church. Church has given a significant importance to the consistency in our belief. So Malankara Catholic Church has regulated to the lessons upto 12th standard which will cherish the growth of belief according to the Malankara Rite. A book named Bible Nursery is issued to all the younger children of the Major Archdiocese. A new text book name Bible Nursery LKG is also issued for brightening up their level of learning. I wish that our children should undergo catechism classes and their regular school learning simultaneously. Our aim is to make our children competent enough to lead a life with solid foundation in Bible and our teachers should also be polished up to catechize our children. It is my prayer from the heart that the younger minds of our children should prosper with seeds of divine thoughts.

God bless you

Other two kittens always used to be with mothercat while walking, sleeping and playing. But this naughty kitten always wander outside alone .

The mothercat always advices him not to run around, but to stay with her. But he never give any attention to her advice. Naughty cat wished to lead a life of his own.

One morning, the cat family woke up hearing the crackers burst. Mothercat ordered the kittens not to go near the crackers. If they went there she reminded them of the dangers also. But the little naughty kitten never gave any attention to the advice of the mother cat and it ran to the place where the crackers burst.

One burnt cracker fall in front of him. He was much exited to see the smoke coming out. He touched it with his glowing nose
 "Tup" At once the cracker burst with loud noice and his face burned off. Everything including his tiny hairs, whickers, skin and his nose were burned off.

He cried 'Meow, Meow' loudly and ran fast to his mother's side. Mother cat held him closer to her and licked all over his wounds lovingly. The naughty kitten promised his mother cat he would never repeat this and always be obedient to her. Mother cat embraced him warmly and sung a sweat lullaby for him.

THE GUARDIAN ANGEL

Tomy and Teena were good friends. Everyday they went together to church and for catechism classes. They sat next to each other. They also went to school together. One day on their way to school there was a sudden hurricane and trees began to fall. Due to heavy rains they couldn't move forward.

The water level rose and they didn't know how to swim. They couldn't find anyone around; they panicked; they did not know what to do. They closed their eyes and prayed aloud to the heavenly Father "Oh God Almighty protect us from this danger".

When they open their eyes, a Guardian Angel was standing in front of them, While when they struck in wonder the Angel told them "God sent me to help you. I will be always with you" The angel lifted both Tomy and Teena on his shoulders and dropped them at the courtyard of the school. They thanked the Angel and went to the class praising God, for his grace.

Angels are messengers of God. God sent them to follow us always wherever we go.

Everyone has a guardian angel who guides us to the right path, teaches us about goodness and they help us to live a good and blessed life, They also protect us from evils and dangers.

guard us tonight in God's
